

Our sponsorship feature is all about our Soprano, Nohra Jacobsen. Nohra is a real estate agent with Keller Williams Realty located on Fraser Street in Vancouver. In addition to sponsoring the choir $250/year she is offering a fantastic bonus to our choir. For every referral any choir member provides, who ends up turning into a transaction, Nohra will give the choir a $1,000 donation in the name of that member!!!

Nohra was recently featured in an article written in celebration of Women's Month in March 2024. Quote: "Nohra's impact on the real estate industry is characterized by creativity, empathy, and a commitment to positive change. Her leadership on the brokerage's Leadership Council and Culture Committee showcases her dedication to making a meaningful difference in local communities through fundraising initiatives for charities. Moreover, she actively fosters Diversity, Equity and Inclusion within her brokerage, recognizing these values as crucial for creating a more inclusive and equitable workplace. On a personal level, Nohra's has shown a commitment to assisting first-time homebuyers."

There's more on what they wrote after a quick interview:

<https://northam-law.com/nohra-jacobsen-real-estate-pioneering-force/>

Nohra immigrated to Canada 24 years ago from Bogota, Columbia. Did you know that she is an artist as well as a beautiful soprano singer? Nohra has a studio at 1000 Parker Street and creates beautiful acrylic paintings and participates in the yearly Eastside Culture Crawl.

The Fabi connection:

Nohra used to sing with Fusion Latina under the direction of Fabi AND more importantly met and fell in love! Yes, that how she met her husband, Engelbert.

Thanks for your support Nohra!